Applications are invited from interested and suitably qualified candidates for appointment to the following position:
ACADEMIC – FULL-TIME LECTURER

South African citizens who are ordained in the Anglican Church of Southern Africa (ACSA) or one of the CUC member churches are encouraged to apply. Members are expected to identify with the Anglican ethos and values of the College.

Duties and responsibilities:

Reporting to the Rector of the College, the successful candidate will be required to:

1. Demonstrate a specialist interest and ability to teach in the field of Ethics and the New Testament among other theological fields.
2. Demonstrate an ability to teach and be willing to adapt their teaching to enhance student engagement and success, including during times of disruption.
3. Teach and contribute across a range of disciplines beyond their area of speciality.
4. Engage with the life of the College in alignment with the College's Vision and Mission.

The main duties of the successful candidate will be to teach across the College's accredited programmes; however, other duties will include holding various staff portfolios, engaging in the worship life of the College, and will be expected to bring a team spirit to a small collegial group of academics and support staff. The successful candidate must be committed to supporting students to succeed in their studies and to assist them to develop the attributes required of ministers of the Anglican Church.

Requirements:

- A Doctor of Philosophy in Theology or a PhD candidate in the final stage of completing their doctoral studies in Theology.
- Experience in teaching-related courses in an institution of higher learning will be an added advantage.
- Ordained person in the Anglican Church of Southern Africa or CUC member churches.
- With experience and knowledge of Christian Ethics and the New Testament. The ability to use learning management systems will serve as recommendations.

Competencies (Knowledge/Skills/Attributes):

The candidate must demonstrate the following competencies.

- Theological knowledge with an understanding of theological ethics, systematic theology, intercultural theology, ecumenism, church polity and interdisciplinary approach.
- Willingness and ability to use insights from other sciences, global context, and general knowledge.
- Sound interpersonal and communication skills (proclaiming, teaching, and writing)
- Interpretation and intellectual skills.
- Spirituality and pastoral caregiving skills.
- Involvement in society (research, intervention, ecumenical cooperation, community issues).
- Computer application skills and ability to use learning management systems.
- Knowledge of the regulatory environment for Higher Education will be an added advantage.

To apply:

CV with the following information displayed e.g., contact person, telephone number, e-mail, and details of three (3) referees. Applications must be accompanied by a cover letter on which applicants explain how they meet the requirements of the post. Applications are to be emailed to the College Registrar at: registrar@cott.co.za by Tuesday 15th June 2021.

Disclaimer:

No applicant would be allowed to apply and/or would be accepted after the closing date (15th June 2021).

Failure to meet the minimum requirements of the advertised post will result in the applicant's automatically disqualifying himself or herself from consideration.

All applications will be treated in strict confidence. This position is advertised as a permanent post, but the College may opt to appoint on a fixed-term contract of not less than three years. The College reserves the right not to proceed with the filling of the post. An application does not entitle the applicant to an interview.

If you are not contacted within 30 days from the closing date, please consider your application unsuccessful.
