

ANGLICAN CHURCH OF SOUTHERN AFRICA
Applications for financial assistance to the Robert Selby Taylor Will Trust

IMPORTANT NOTE TO APPLICANTS & BISHOPS:

1. Robert Selby Taylor Will Trust Fund Applications must be completed in full before submitting for endorsement by the Bishop of your diocese.

NB!

Bishops, please ensure application information and all supporting documents comply with the checklist before endorsing the application to enable full consideration by the Trustees.

2. Bishops, please ensure application forms reach the Archbishop's office promptly by 31st August. Do not send to another office. Applicants may post endorsed forms to: 20 Bishopscourt Drive, Bishopscourt, Claremont 7708, or email: archreception@anglicanchurchsa.org.za
 Bishops please don't just write 'endorse'. Your concise report on each candidate is invaluable.
3. Applications for Categories A (Pension Augmentation), C (Sickness) and D (Special Need) may be submitted throughout the year. However, only requests for financial assistance under Category B (Education) is considered at this time:

Submissions before 31 August

4. It is essential applications are received in time, so that due considerations are applied to all. Late applications, however deserving, forfeit full consideration by the Trustees.
5. Applicants please ensure your form is complete and double check it. This may include but not limited to school results, payslips, and proof of banking details, certified copy of I.D. etc.
6. The Robert Selby Taylor Trust provides funding by way of grant. It is not a loan. Applications are for Education assistance.
 The following are not considered:
  - Grants for clergy studies
  - Pre-school education
  - Grants for primary education is limited
  - Non-stipendiary clergy
7. Deserving applicants may succeed in receiving support for more than one year. Funding is strictly for clergy children only (it does not include extended family). Poor results may lose financial support.
8. Eligible applicants for Tertiary Education should prove/indicate applications were made to e.g. the National Students Financial Aid Scheme (NSFAS – www.nsfas.org.za). The NSFAS provide loans to South African citizens only, at subsidized rates up to 40% may become a bursary, depending on results.
9. Your diocese may also be a source of funding. The Robert Selby Taylor Will Trust Fund should be regarded 'last resort' rather than first port of call for funding.

The Robert Selby Taylor Trust has assisted many deserving applicants over the years and we are grateful for the generosity of the late Archbishop in making this possible.
